70 HORSES AND MULES STUCK, AND
WAGONS IN MIRETRAFFIC FINALLY COMES TO A STOP ON THE FAMOUS HAMAKUA ROAD OUT OF HILO—DID MEN SENT TO REPAIR HOLES DISAPPEAR IN THE HOLES?HILO, Nov. 11.—The Herald says:
Traffic between Hilo and Papaikou is practically suspended.
On Tuesday of this week there were seventy head of horses and mules stalled on the Honolii road.The animals and the vehicles they had been attempting to draw were stuck in the mud, or up to their axles between the rocks, or both.
Teams had been unhitched to help the teams ahead that were stuck. Then those in front would leave their wagons at the top of the hill while the animals went back to try and move the next load.

At last the condition became absolutely impossible. Vehicles lay broken on the road, wheels were off, animals down and unable to rise, so that word was telephoned to Hilo not to attempt to send out another wagon, another load, or another animal unless with a saddle on its back.

From Wainaku to Papaikou the condition has been getting worse every day. Five weeks ago the Board of Supervisors authorized Supervisor Desha, who has charge of the roads in the district, to make arrangements with the Volcano Stables and Transportation Company to effect temporary repairs, the company offering to burnish the money for the work until the County had funds to pay the bill.

But Desha has done nothing and has made no effort to arrange for the repairs, nor did he ever go to see Manager Wright. The latter, however, saw Desha who said that he was patching, filling up the holes with mud. When the Board authorized him to make the arrangements he said that he had one man at work filling holes and would put another man to work at the same job. Perhaps the men have been lost in the holes, if so they were not big enough to fill even a single one of them.

Gradually the load sent out on a wagon up the Honolii road has been reduced, till now only a quarter of a load is placed on a wagon while two more horses or mules have been added to haul the smaller quantity.

Of the seventy animals stuck on the Honolii road on Tuesday, forty belonged to the Volcano Stables, the other thirty to other owners. The Stables has contracts for hauling a large quantity of lumber to Onomea plantation. On Tuesday, Manager Moir ordered this work stopped as it was impossible for the lumber to reach the mill. There is also a large quantity of material being hauled out for the Hilo Railroad's work by the Stables, and of course the condition of the road hinders its rapid construction.

Buggies, carts, stages have been broken and overturned on the Honolii road, to say nothing of the destruction to harness, and broken knees of live stock. In addition to all this is the fact that the business of Hilo is being hindered, paralyzed in fact. Not only is the large amount of commercial hauling checked, but ordinary traffic with the Hilo stores is stopped because people who live beyond the Honolii road will not risk their rigs, their livestock and their own lives just for the sake of trying to come to Hilo and do a little shopping or business. Whatever can be done with Laupahoehoe is going there.

COMMERCIAL NEWS

firms it and the future holds it out as a certain promise.

Stocks have been active, trading ranging above the average, with prices rather higher than had been calculated upon. The continuation of the strong sugar market has had the effect of increasing and steadying confidence in stocks and bonds; and the indications now are that another sugar campaign will be successfully completed under the present satisfactory market conditions.

KEEP STORES OPEN.

George W. Smith has addressed the Merchants' Association on the subject of stores keeping open during the evening hours. He points out the fact of the numerous military posts about the city and the consequent existence of evening traffic—something not known before. On account of the first class retail stores being closed, this trade is forced into Chinatown. The matter will be taken up by the Merchants' Association for consideration.

ALAMEDA'S REPORT.

The following wireless has been received by the agents from the S. S. Alameda:
"Alameda, 8 p. m. November 12.
"All well, 810 miles, fresh southeast wind, rough sea. Bar. 30.11, temperature 70."

COMMERCIAL

It is authoritatively stated that the Oahu Sugar Co. sales reported in these columns yesterday were neither the result of a panic on the part of the broker selling the stock nor of an attempt to bear the market. A positive order had been received to sell the shares at market price, and the prices obtained simply resulted from the fact that there were no buyers for it at over the figures obtained, which were well above the seller's limit. Only 85 shares changed hands in the entire transaction.

LURLINE'S DATES.

The Matson steamer Lurline sailed last night for Hilo, where she will discharge freight and take sugar, returning here early Monday morning. She will sail for the Coast at 10 a. m. next Wednesday.

PLANTERS' MEETING.

The Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association will meet in the rooms of that body, Judd building, at 10 o'clock Monday morning. The plan of organizing and carrying on the day's business will be practically the same as in years past.

The annual meeting of the Waialae, Kaimuki and Palolo Improvement Club will be held some evening next week at the residence of A. Frank Cooke. The principal business will be election of officers, consideration of reservoir matters, and the Rapid Transit schedule. The date of this meeting will be announced later.

FARCES AT COLLEGE.

Tickets are now on sale for two farces to be given by the students of Oahu College on the evening of November 20th, in Charles Bishop Hall. The plays selected are of unusual interest, one being "City Bred in Livory," by S. H. Smith, and the other "The Sleeping Car," by Wm. D. Howells. The latter offers a particularly unique situation, the scene being laid a midnight in a Pullman coach, and the plot resting upon the efforts of a very talkative little woman to identify a brother whom she has not seen for years. The remonstrances of her outraged fellow-travellers are effectually quelled by a chivalrous and belligerent Californian, and the family eventually united.

TELEPHONE 735HEAVY LOSS OF LIFE IN WEST INDIES

(Special Cable to The Star from the United Press.)

NEW YORK, November 13.—Reports received here today indicate that the loss of life in the West Indies, as the result of the earthquake and storms of Wednesday last, was very large. The City of Kingston, Jamaica, during the storm, registered forty-eight inches rainfall.

Schuman Carriage Company have just received fifty-five fine young California mules, which will be offered for sale next week. Plantation managers in the city would do well to look over these mules before leaving Honolulu. They are all strong—just right for plantation work.

The Cartecar is the machine for rough, mountain roads and also has no superior for sandy or marshy service. The Hawaiian Garage handle it.

The Townsend Undertaking Company are selling space in their new mausoleum at Kamohili. As the number of vaults are limited no time should be lost in seeing about this matter.

C. M. Tai, King street Ewa of Nuuanu, has a complete stock of hunters' supplies, baseball goods, etc. This store is kept open every Saturday night until 9 o'clock.

J. W. Kershner, the vulcanizer, is prepared to do the best of work in his line at moderate cost. His place of business is in Alakea street near Berea.

Vierra's orchestra will supply music at the Park theater this evening.

FIVE YEARS FOR BURGLAR

Yee Sui this morning pleaded guilty to burglary in the first degree. Judge De Bolt sentenced him to a term of not less than five years at hard labor and payment of costs. Yee burglarized the store of Sing Kee in the night.

Two appeals and nineteen commitments from Honolulu District Court were entered on the Circuit Court records this morning. Suzuki appeals from a fine of $5 and costs for assault and battery upon Henry Luntz, and Ueda from a fine of $15 and costs for a like offense upon Seki.

HILO COURT NOTICE.

A notice comes from Hilo that, owing to the absence of Judge Parsons, the Fourth Circuit Grand Jury is excused from appearing until December 1; and the trial jury until December 6.

EJECTMENT SUIT.

Helen N. Rosa by her attorney, E. M. Watson, has brought an ejectment suit against Fred. Harrison for land at Kaalawai, Kapahulu, Oahu, containing 17,540 square feet, with a claim of $1,000 for detention. Defendant by his attorney, A. S. Humphreys, pleads he is not guilty of the trespass and joins the defendant in demanding a trial by jury.

DIVORCE CASES.

Ellen Manuia Paahao has been granted a divorce against William Paahao for criminal conduct, and awarded permanent alimony of $20 a month, by Judge Robinson.

Melana M. Lum Young sues Lum Young for divorce and possession of their son, three years old, Lum Jim, on the ground of non-support. By order of Judge Robinson the boy has been taken from the Salvation Army Home and given into the charge of the mother until the further order of court.

PROBATE MATTERS.

George H. Huddy, guardian of Iokapa Kale, a minor, petitions for discharge, the ward having come of age on October 10 last. The ward files a waiver of final account by the guardian and a receipt for all the title papers affecting 3.31 acres of land.

Jennie Alameda Duvel, guardian of the Ingalls minors, three, has filed her fifth annual account showing receipts of $192.60 and payments of $92.95.

AT HALEIWA.

Manager Kimball, who is something of a tennis enthusiast, has put the court at Haleiwa in splendid condition and many enjoyable sets are played there. For a long time under the former management tennis was sacrificed to golf but under the new both sports are indulged in. There is no better place for the golfer than Haleiwa because the links are so well situated. It is always cool and the playing is pleasant in consequence. The table at Haleiwa is equal to any in the country and the service better than most hotels. The wide verandahs, too, are inviting and those who go to this famous resort for a rest find it. The ride by auto is always pleasant.
